

EXPORT-IMPORT BANK of the UNITED STATES

Ex-Im Bank helps U.S. companies to sustain and create jobs by financing U.S. exports.

APRIL H. FOLEY

FIRST VICE PRESIDENT AND VICE CHAIR

April H. Foley is first vice president of the Export-Import Bank of the United States (Ex-Im Bank), and in that capacity she also serves as vice chair. Foley joined Ex-Im Bank's board of directors on April 23, 2003. She was sworn in as first vice president on December 15, 2003. President George W. Bush nominated Foley to serve as Ex-Im Bank's first vice president on November 21, 2003. She was confirmed by the Senate on Dec. 9. Her term expires January 20th, 2005.

Foley is a distinguished business leader with 20 years of management experience in both the private sector and in the non-profit arena. She was director of strategy for Reader's Digest Association, Inc., and she spent 17 years at PepsiCo, Inc., where she was director of business planning and corporate strategy. She also held positions at Wilson Sporting Goods and Pfizer, Inc.

Foley also served as president of the United Way of Northern Westchester in New York, and was a member of the board of directors for the Corporation for Policy Review Institute for Dispute Resolution in New York, NY. She was chair of the Alexis de Tocqueville Society for Westchester and Putnam counties in New York. She has held volunteer leadership positions at the Northern Westchester Shelter of Pleasantville, NY, Smith College, Harvard Business School, and St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Bedford, NY.

Foley has a master of business administration from the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration as well as a bachelor of arts in psychology from Smith College.

Foley has three children, Catherine, Gifford, and James.

EXPORT-IMPORT BANK of the UNITED STATES

Office of Communications
202.565.3200 • www.exim.gov

December 2003