

David Flanagan was appointed General Director of the North American International Product Center in Detroit, Michigan, effective October 2009. In this position he is responsible for exports of all GM vehicles and vehicle components to markets outside the NAFTA region. Formerly he was Director in Charge of the GM Europe International Product Center responsible for exports of Opel and Saab products, since 2008. In 2004 Mr. Flanagan was appointed Managing Director, GM Poland, based in Warsaw, Poland. Mr. Flanagan's extensive prior international experience with General Motors includes establishment of the overseas Hummer distribution in Europe and Russia, development of the Chevrolet business in Japan where he was posted for 3 years, and initial business development activities with China in the 1990s. He holds a Bachelors of Mechanical Engineering from Kettering University, and a Masters in Business Administration from the University of Michigan. He lives in Beverly Hills, MI, and is married with three children.