

Exports Live!

Real Deals - Real Profits

Learn how local businesses successfully grew their sales with government products and services

- Finding new buyers
- Entering new foreign markets
- Extending credit to buyers/distributors
- Covering commercial and political risks
- Ensuring payment
- Obtaining working capital
- Financing for buyers
- Using E-commerce tools

This unique trade event is specially designed for small and medium-sized businesses that want to start or grow their international sales. Participants will learn about the government product and services available to help their businesses successfully compete worldwide. The half-day seminar will include a series of interactive panel discussions with federal government partners as well as with exporters highlighting their “success stories.” After lunch, there will be an opportunity for one-on-one sessions with government trade professionals and networking with trade finance lenders, export credit insurance brokers, government and industry experts, and other successful U.S. exporters.

A world of new ideas for expanding your global trade business is waiting for you, so register now for the 2009 export solutions seminar closest to you:
