Al Anbar 2nd Annual International Investment Conference 2011 – Istanbul

The Al Anbar Investment Commission has announced the Al Anbar 2nd Annual International Investment Conference 2011, to be held October 24 -26, 2011 in Istanbul, Turkey.

The Conference aims at opening new and unlimited horizons for an all-out investment in Al Anbar, the largest Iraqi Governorate, in various sectors, especially in the fields of oil and natural gas. Companies will learn about the various industrial projects expected to be launched in the industrial cities of Al Anbar, which will be announced during the conference.

Al Anbar, the biggest Iraqi governorate in area, is a promising investment attraction because of its outstanding geographical location near Baghdad and its border with three countries, which appeals to investors to create new and competitive markets. The governorate has adopted long-term investment strategies aiming at employing the unique resources and assets of Al Anbar, a city renowned for its well-established and diverse industrial activities, in addition to several other successful investment stories in the sectors of housing, agriculture and tourism.
