EXIM EXTENDS ASSISTANCE TO U.S. CUSTOMERS AND LENDERS AMID COVID-19 PANDEMIC

The Export-Import Bank of the United States (EXIM) is announcing extended relief provisions for exporters and financial institutions located throughout the United States that may have been affected by COVID-19 (coronavirus). We want to assure our customers that we will work with you to address the problems you may face as a result of COVID-19. EXIM is extending the relief measures originally announced on March 12, 2020 and extended in April, August and again in October as outlined below, including waivers, deadline extensions, streamlined processing, and flexibility to enable businesses and financial institutions that participate in our programs to return to their business concerns and EXIM-related obligations at an appropriate time without penalty^[1].

EXIM is open for business to support America's exporters during this difficult and challenging time. We will continue to monitor the situation and offer further accommodations as circumstances warrant.

If you have encountered any shipment problems, payment difficulties, liquidity problems, or other business interruptions that require other flexible arrangements from EXIM in addition to the ones outlined above, EXIM stands ready to work with you in partnership to overcome these issues.

Please feel free to reach out to one of the EXIM program representatives listed below for further assistance. EXIM relief measures are as follows:

1. Working Capital Guarantee Program
 - Waiver of program requirements with which parties cannot reasonably comply under the circumstances, such as field exams, borrowing base certificates, financial statement reporting, and other reporting requirements;
 - Waiver of defaults for nonpayment of interest up to 60 days;
 - Waiver of provisions relating both to defaults and to replenishment of collateral for over-advances resulting from losses of inventory and/or sales;
 - Automatic extensions of up to 30 days for all claim-filing deadlines that arise from March 12, 2020 to April 30, 2021 (with further extensions considered at EXIM's discretion);
 - Flexibility regarding the documentation necessary to file a claim.
2. Multi-Buyer and Single-Buyer Short-Term Insurance Policies Issued to Exporters
 - Streamlined processing of multi-buyer policy renewals that are eligible for renewal from March 12 through May 1, 2021;
 - Streamlined processing of all exporter single buyer policy (ESS) and Special Buyer Credit Limit (SBCL) renewals that expire on or before May 1, 2021;
 - Extension of up to 30 days for shipment reporting and premium payment deadlines for all shipments made from March 12, 2020 through April 30, 2021;

- Extension of overdue reporting requirements for up to 30 days for all overdues that would normally have required reporting from March 12, 2020 through April 30, 2021;
 - Extension of up to 30 days beyond the claim filing period if the claim filing deadline specified in the policy occurs from March 12, 2020 through April 30, 2021;
 - Early claim filing is available, but all other terms and conditions of the policy apply;
 - Flexibility in claims analysis and the documentation necessary to file a claim; and
 - If you are a financial institution with a Letter of Credit Policy or Financial Institution Buyer Credit Policy, please contact us if assistance is needed to address concerns regarding your insurance-related obligations.
 - Additional information regarding extension of foreign payment due dates can be found here.
3. Medium-Term Single-Buyer Insurance Policies Issued to Exporters or Financial Institutions
- Extension of up to 30 days beyond the claim filing period if the claim filing deadline specified in the policy occurs within 30 days from March 12, 2020, through April 30, 2021;
 - Extension of up to 30 days for policies that expire within 60 days from March 12, 2020, through April 30, 2021;
 - Extensions of up to 30 days of shipment reporting and premium payment deadlines for all shipments made during a 30-day period from March 12, 2020, through April 30, 2021; and
 - Flexibility in claims analysis and the documentation necessary to file a claim.
